

TIME FOR A FAMILY REUNION?

HAVE YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO GATHER TOGETHER YOUR EXTENDED FAMILY FOR A BIG REUNION?

The BBC are looking for people from rural communities who are keen to hold a big family get-together as part of a major new documentary series.

The reunion will take place over an all-expenses weekend away in the UK, and will offer each family the chance to discover their collective history, take part in genealogy workshops and family activities, and re-establish family bonds.
